

3.50.010-AD      Assignment Of Athletic Programs To Schools

- (1) Differences in high school enrollments, in the number of students interested in various sports, and the need to provide cost-effective programs require decisions on program levels to be provided in each sport and school.
- (2) In carrying out Board-delegated responsibilities to operate cost-effective programs for the district, the following rules apply for varsity competition in the various high schools. Each school must meet the minimum number of students indicated to compete on the varsity level.
