

3.50.040-AD Practice Schedules

- (1) Practice shall not exceed a total of two and one-half hours in any sport.
Students shall not be excused from classes for practice.
- (2) Practice is allowed on in-service days, after the in-service has been completed and with the permission of the building principal. Practices may be scheduled on Saturdays and during scheduled school breaks with the approval of the Director of Athletics.
- (3) Practices must occur with the calendar dates established annually by the OSAA and additionally, as may seem necessary, by the district.
- (4) No student may be permitted to practice with the team or squad unless he/she is a student regularly enrolled in the school.
- (5) Exceptions:
 - (a) A home school student is eligible to participate at the school in the attendance area in which the student resides;
 - (b) A student attending a private school that is a member of the OSAA but does not offer a particular activity may participate in that activity at the school in the attendance area in which the student resides, providing both high school principals agree.
